

Proverbs for Kwanzaa

Umoja (Unity)

December 26: Day One of Kwanzaa

- United family eats from the same plate. —South Africa (Zulu)
- Unity is strength. —Zanzibar
- Unity among the cattle makes the lion lie down hungry. —Africa
- Sticks in a bundle are unbreakable. —Tanzania, Kenya
- A person is a person because of other persons. —Lesotho
- “The heavens will fall” is not the concern of only one individual. —Africa
- The wisdom of the white man depends on togetherness. —Ghana

Kujichagulia (Self-Determination)

December 27: Day Two of Kwanzaa

- To ride a horse is good; to walk on your own feet is better. —Mali
- No one can scratch your itch or convey your message like yourself. —Ethiopia
- If you rely on someone else's soup pot, you go to bed hungry. —Ghana (Akan)
- If you borrow a man's legs, you will go where he directs you. —Africa
- If your hand is in someone's mouth, you do not hit him on the top of the head. —Ghana
- Each firefly lights its own way. —Haiti
- If you want your eggs hatched, sit on them yourself. —Liberia (Jabo)
- Blessed are those who can please themselves. —South Africa (Zulu)

Ujima (Collective Work & Responsibility)

December 28: Day Three of Kwanzaa

- Ants are tiny, but they lift things that are many times their size and weight. —Africa
- What is looked for by many will have a finder. —Uganda (Ganda)
- When minds are the same, that which is far off will come. —East Africa
- If one kindles the fire, others take live coals out of it. —Ghana (Twi)
- If birds travel without coordination, they beat each other's wings. —Kiswahili
- When spider webs unite, they can tie up a lion. —Ethiopia
- Thin and lean strings when braided together can tie up the mighty lion. —Ethiopia
- The failure of snakes to travel in groups makes it easy for humans to kill them with machetes. —Africa
- Two skinny and weak dogs can overcome a fierce animal. —Burundi (Rundi)
- Make a bed for the children of other people in the place where your own children sleep. —Morocco

Prepared by the authors of Lifelines: The Black Book of Proverbs (available- online and in stores- wherever books are sold). For more proverbs, or to receive a free daily proverb, please visit: LifelinesProverbs.com. Download this document from: lifelinesproverbs.com/wp-content/uploads/2010/12/Kwanzaa-Proverbs.pdf. You have permission to copy and distribute this document as long as this footer remains visible and intact.

Ujamaa (Cooperative Economics)

December 29: Day Four of Kwanzaa

- If you sell a drum in your own village, you get the money and keep the sound. —Madagascar
- Money does not stay in one place. —Ghana (Akan)
- No one in the presence of a large sum of money goes hungry to bed. —Ghana (Akan)
- If ten cents does not go out, it does not bring in one thousand dollars. —Ghana (Twi)
- You gain interest only on what you invest. —Lesotho
- You cannot get rich if you look after your relatives properly. —Native American (Navajo)
- Little and often fills the purse. —Tanzania (Zanzibar)
- Generosity is wealth. —Africa
- One person does not build a town. —Ghana (Akan)
- Eat alone, hungry alone. —Virgin Islands

Nia (Purpose)

December 30: Day Five of Kwanzaa

- Accomplishment of purpose is better than making a profit. —Niger, Nigeria (Hausa)
- A good purpose is like a doctor and evil purpose corrupts. —Tanzania (Zanzibar)
- If you do not build your house firmly, you are afraid to sleep in it. — Ghana (Twi)
- If the dance is pleasing, even the lame crawl to it. —Ghana (Twi)
- The ruin of a nation begins in the homes of its people. —Ghana (Ashanti)

Kuumba (Creativity)

December 31: Day Six of Kwanzaa

- The wind and the imagination can travel far and wide at no cost. —Ethiopia
- Although the snake does not fly, it has caught the bird whose home is in the sky. —Ghana (Akan)
- A stumble is not a fall. —Haiti
- Do not stop children having fun; otherwise, they will also stop your serious work. —Gambia (Mandinka)
- The creator of a dance should not be excluded from it. —Ghana (Akan)
- A creature is not completely created until death. —Kiswahili
- If you don't desire a thing, you will never get it. —Africa

Imani (Faith)

January 1: Day Seven of Kwanzaa

- It is the body of the wind that people do not see. —Uganda
- The trees that are growing are tomorrow's forest. —Zambia
- The following day begins with a lot of hope. —Uganda, Congo
- The darkness of night cannot stop the light of morning. —Burundi
- You don't give up to despair before God. —Burundi
- Anticipate the good so that you may enjoy it. —Ethiopia
- Only a fool believes that the clouds obscure the splendor of the moon. It has shined behind them for eternity. —Africa

Prepared by the authors of Lifelines: The Black Book of Proverbs (available- online and in stores- wherever books are sold). For more proverbs, or to receive a free daily proverb, please visit: LifelinesProverbs.com. Download this document from: lifelinesproverbs.com/wp-content/uploads/2010/12/Kwanzaa-Proverbs.pdf. You have permission to copy and distribute this document as long as this footer remains visible and intact.